

Activity: LOG ANALYSIS

Log analysis is a process that gives visibility into the performance and health of IT infrastructure and application stacks, through the review and interpretation of logs that are generated by network, operating systems, applications, servers, and other hardware and software components

Activity

Look for more information about Log analysis process, involving incidents response (English pages only)

It is requested

- 1) Read and understand the pages founded
- 2) Show different Incident Response Guides
- 3) What is Log Analysis
- 4) Look for and show some Log analysis tools, and explain they.

- Indicate where you find the report information

Document the entire process in pdf format. Sign it with your digital certificate.